Who are the members of the 4-H Leaders' Association?

Every Youth Protection certified adult 4-H leader enrolled in Waupaca County 4-H is a member. Every youth member enrolled in the Waupaca County 4-H Program in grades 7 and above with at least one year of 4-H enrollment is a member of the Leaders' Association.

What happens at the 4-H Leaders' Association Meetings?

Leaders' Association meetings are the place where policies about 4-H in Waupaca County are discussed and made.

We talk about current initiatives in the 4-H program, upcoming events, leader opportunities and member opportunities.

What are the goals of the 4-H Leaders' Association?

The goals of the 4-H Leaders' Association are to keep youth interested, encourage participation beyond the club level, increase parental involvement, promote positive experiences, and encourage active attendance at leaders' meetings.

Why should you be involved in the 4-H Leaders' Association?

The 4-H program in Waupaca County can be anything you want it to be if you come, share your thoughts and get involved. When you are a registered leader, the Leaders' Association provides you with accident and liability insurance, a reduced admission pass for the County Fair, leader trainings, and resources for club meetings.

4-H Leaders' Association meetings are held on the fourth Tuesday of January, March, July, and September, at 7:30 p.m. at the Manawa City Hall.

How do the Leaders' Board and the 4-H Youth Educators fit into the Leaders' Association?

The 4-H Leaders' Board is made up of 16 elected leaders. They meet on the second Thursday of March, May, September, and November. In January and July the Leaders' Board and the Leaders' Association meetings will be held on the same night, the fourth Tuesday of the month. The Leaders' Board is responsible for fundraising, developing an annual budget and all financial transactions, including an audit. They set the agenda for the Association meetings and prepare draft policies for items on which the Association needs to make a decision. The 4-H Youth Educators serve as advisors.
